TODAY'S SPEAKER

The Honorable Peter T. Fay, who speaks today at the invitation of the graduating class, will soon mark his fifth year as a United States District Judge in the Southern District of Florida.

Before his appointment to the bench in 1970, he had been engaged in trial and appellate practice in Miami since his graduation from the University of Florida College of Law in 1956.

Graduating first in his law class, Judge Fay was President of the John Marshall Bar Association and of the Phi Delta Phi Legal Fraternity. He was selected for membership in the Order of the Coif and was an executive editor of the Law Review.

Prior to law school, he served as an officer in the U.S. Air Force. During his college days at Rollins College in Winter Park, Florida, he lettered in four varsity sports, received a football scholarship, and was named captain of the college All State Basketball Team.

As an Attorney, he was active in bar activities, including numerous committees of The Florida Bar and The American and Dade County Bar Associations. He served five years on grievance committees of The Florida Bar and acted as attorney for the Bar in presenting disciplinary complaints to the Supreme Court of Florida.

CANDIDATES FOR MASTER OF LAWS IN TAXATION

The degree Master of Laws in Taxation is awarded to students who, after earning the Juris Doctor degree and in some cases practicing for one or many years, have undertaken a year's intensive graduate instruction. The College of Law offers a specialized graduate tax curriculum for this purpose. Candidates for the degree are required to earn a "B" average in all graduate work attempted. For this reason, no honors or high honors designation is made, but the top three graduates in the August 1975 class will be announced during the ceremony.

CENTER FOR GOVERNMENTAL RESPONSIBILITY-The Center for Governmental Responsibility is a privately funded organization housed at the Holland Law Center committed to the goal of seeking out and implementing ways of making government more accountable to its citizens. The Center provides students with a unique opportunity to combine academic research with first-hand observation of the way laws are made, administered, and tested in the courts. Along with studying published materials, students are sent to Washington, D.C., and other centers of government, to conduct personal interviews. Students prepare reports of their investigations, draft model legislation, and assist in the writing of amicus briefs.

OATH OF ADMISSION TO THE FLORIDA BAR PRESCRIBED BY THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA

I DO SOLEMNLY SWEAR:

I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Florida.

I will maintain the respect due to Courts of Justice and judicial officers;

I will not counsel or maintain any suit or proceeding which shall appear to me to be unjust, nor any defense except such as I believe to be honestly debatable under the law of the land;

I will employ for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided to me such means only as are consistent with truth and honor, and will never seek to mislead the Judge or jury by any artifice or false statement of fact or law;

I will maintain the confidence and preserve inviolate the secrets of my client, and will accept no compensation in connection with his business except from him or with his knowledge and approval;

I will abstain from all offensive personalities and advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or witness, unless required by the justice of the cause with which I am charged;

I will never reject, from any consideration personal to myself, the cause of the defenseless or oppressed, or delay any man's cause for lucre or malice. So Help Me God.
